Introduction

BPW has about 30'000 members in more than 100 countries – growing (above all in the Middle East). Most of its members are from Europe (about 60%).

Origin of the Projects

A large part of the Clubs and most Federations and Affiliates have projects running that support women and society. This booklet contains projects that have been:

- Registered at <https://www.bpw-cfprojects.org/lists/>. On this website you find further information about the projects registered there.
- Collected from the reports handed in by the presidents of the Federations and Affiliates.

Allocation of Projects to SDG's

On the following pages we have dedicated a chapter to every SDG. To every SDG we have allocated projects. Because of the high number of projects (160), we decided to allocate a project only to one SDG, although many projects can be allocated to multiple SDG's. In the chapter "List of Club & Federation Projects by BPW International" you find all projects and the SDG they have been allocated to. If available we give some rudimentary information about the projects and a picture.

SGD 18

SDG 18 (BPW Sustainability) displays the projects that are aimed at the sustainability of BPW International. This "SDG" contains projects that have also been allocated to another SDG.

Focus Point

Equal Pay Day

Equal Pay Day is one BPW International Taskforces and has been successfully introduced in a large number of countries around the globe.

The EPD Campaign – started in the year 2008 – has the aim to reduce the gender pay gap. The campaign on Equal Pay day had and aims to increase the awareness on this issue and to get the attention of the Institutions. This project is a huge success, since many countries are approving appropriate laws. Law regarding equal pay have come into force in Iceland and France: the first countries in the world to apply seriously the equal pay for equal work. Furthermore, BPW Europe achieved another important result: now equal salary for equal work is one of the seventeen sustainable development goals, on the Agenda 2030.
